

POSTERS

Posters are any type of printed material designed to be attached to a wall or vertical surface. They are usually a mix of text, graphics and images and can be a powerful way to communicate a personal message, or invite others to an event or group.

Voices over Silence designed a poster to raise awareness of FGM and where to go for help.

In partnership with the Bridgend Equality Forum and the 'Bridgend Says End Bullying' project, primary school pupils from across Bridgend submitted their own designs for an anti-bullying poster competition. View their posters here.

The young feminist group Newid-ffem's poster invites young people to a lunchtime session to debate gender inequalities and gender stereotypes.

ZINES AND COMICS

Print based Zines, E-Zines, graphic books and alternative comics are often self-published magazines characterized by a creative do-it-yourself attitude. They have a rich political history in expressing subversive and sensitive issues.

Following a lesson on consent and a discussion of kissing in children's Disney films, Year 6 students wrote their own Kisstory comic strips inspired by a series of animations. Each comic told the story of how consent matters in the lives of its characters.

To find out more, take a look at the GrrlZine Network. The Book of Zines has links to everything you'll need to know about how to create your own zine or group zine. Check out the British Library's collection of zines, graphic books and comics.
